AMERICANS HANDICAPPED.

Received Severe Treatment at Paris Contests.

Paris, July 12.—The world's amateur championship contests in connection with the Paris Exposition came to a conclinion to-day, at the grounds of Racing Club, in the Eqs De Roulegue. The weather was the loas be housed. The weath was cooler than it was last week, though the san shope heighly, comparatively few Americans attended, owing to the fact that only three or four of their countrymes were ammonated to compete in the Evenis, for the most part impoles in which the American cans had received too perers treatment to empt them to exhaust themselves in tun-icans had received too severe treatment to templ them to exhibit themselves in tunning leany races.

Six evenus were decided. The Americans competed in three and wen one, that only success for the day.

The programme opened with the 119 meters hardle race, A. C. Kraenzich, University of Pennsylvania, being made the scratch man. As the other Americans who entered were also pulled back, all declined to run. Rau, a German, with a 29 minure allowance, went Protchard, with 8 meters, was second, and Eliminocher, Frenchman, with 15 meters, third. Time, the 1-6.

Three companiors stripped for the shot putting, the six Americans who had entered, including 10-hord Sheddol, New York Athletic Cinb, who was the erratch man, standing out. Creatier, a Humarian, with 2 meters allowance, was first, with 11 meters by centimeters, lassedt, a Frenchman, with 3 meters allowance, with 12 meters of centimeters, allowance, with 12 meters of centimeters, allowance, with 12 meters of centimeters, allowance, with 12 meters of centimeters. Thris entries were remixed for the 29 meters flat race, which followed, but only sight went to the starting post, two old of instrum Americans and a conting. Two relate resolved, in which William J. Holman, University of Georgetown, and Walter B. Tewksburg, University of Philadelphia, with Princheria of the Empleh team and Rowley of New South Wales qualifying.

Miss Relena Zimmerman of Cincinnal, one of the most beautifu, roung women in the saminer colony, is engaged to marry the Duke of Manchester.

A letter received here from London corroborated the report, and said the Duke expected to sail soon for this country, and that their the annuncement would be made public.

Miss Zimmerman to-night blushingly refused to confirm the engagement, but said she and the Duke were well a quainted. They met le London when she was abroad with her father last year, and later, when the Duke was in the country he paid her marked aftending.

She is a handsome blonde. Her father is E. Zimmirman, a rullroad contractor, whose wealth is estimated at $19,00,000.

In the London letter received here it was said that the Duke, whose impounionity and tropoles with his creditors are subjects of common knowledge, had becrowed $2,00 to make the trip to America, and that his friends all believes he would return with a wife whose dow r would set him on his feet financially, patch up his rolled cassiers and put a stop to his worker from creditors.
